John 9:1-41

Narrator:	As Jesus walked along, he saw a man blind from birth, and his disciples asked him,
Disciple 1:	"Rabbi, who sinned?"
Disciple 2:	"Was it this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"
Jesus:	"Neither this man or his parents sinned; but in order that God's works might be revealed in him, we must work the works of him who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
Narrator:	When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man's eyes, saying to him,
Jesus:	"Go wash in the pool of Siloam"
Narrator:	Then he went and washed and came back able to see. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask,

Neighbor 1:	"Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?"
Neighbor 2:	"It is he."
Neighbor 3:	"No, but it is someone like him."
Man:	"I am the man."
Neighbor 1:	"Then how were your eyes opened?"
Man:	"The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' Then I went and washed and received my sight."
Neighbor 2:	"Where is he?"
Man:	"I do not know."
Narrator:	They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them,
Man:	"He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see."
Pharisee 1:	"This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath."
Pharisee 2:	"But how can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?"
Narrator:	And they were divided. So they said again to the blind man,
Pharisee 3:	"What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened."

Man:	"He is a prophet."	Man:	"Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will. Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."
Narrator:	The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight and asked them,	Pharisee 1:	"You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?"
Pharisee 3:	"Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"	Narrator:	And they drove him out. Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said,
Parent 1:	"We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes.	Jesus:	"Do you believe in the Son of Man?"
Parent 2:	"Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself."	Man:	"And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him."
Narrator:	His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue. Therefore his parents said, "He is of age, ask him." So for the second time they called the man who had been blind.	Jesus:	"You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he."
Pharisee 1:	"Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner."	Man:	"Lord, I believe."
Man:	"I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."	Narrator:	And he worshiped him.
Pharisee 2:	"What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"	Jesus:	"I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind."
Man:	"I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?"	Narrator:	Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him,
Pharisee 1:	"You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from."	Pharisee 3:	"Surely we are not blind, are we?"
		Jesus:	"If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains."
